ANSWER EXPLANATIONS

General Information

1. Article II, Section 1 places sovereignty in the people, from whom government authority originates.

2. Article III contains the Bill of Rights. Article IV concerns citizenship, while Article XI concerns public accountability.

3. Article IV recognizes citizenship through either a Filipino father or a Filipino mother.

4. Article V requires at least one year of Philippine residence and six months in the voting locality immediately before the election.

5. COA examines government accounts and the use of public funds and property.

6. Article II establishes civilian supremacy over the military at all times.

7. Due process includes procedural safeguards against arbitrary government action. Denying notice and an opportunity to respond undermines those safeguards.

8. Article IX-B bases civil-service appointments on merit and fitness, generally determined through competitive examination where applicable. These constitutional answers follow the Constitution's text. The LawPhil Project

9. Commitment to public interest requires government resources to serve public purposes rather than private convenience.

10. Political neutrality requires fair service regardless of party affiliation or preference.

11. Section 5(a) specifies 15 working days. The response must state the action taken on the request.

12. Section 8 sets April 30 as the regular annual filing deadline.

13. A valuable gift offered for favorable treatment of an official transaction falls within the prohibited solicitation or acceptance of gifts.

14. Using confidential official information to give someone an undue advantage is prohibited. These ethical rules are stated in RA 6713. lawphil.net

15. Segregating waste where it originates keeps different materials separate and supports proper recovery and disposal.

16. Composting processes biodegradable material into a useful soil amendment.

17. Reuse gives an existing item another use without converting it into a different material. These distinctions follow RA 9003. lawphil.net

18. Human rights apply to every person, regardless of nationality, status, or other distinctions. Regional Office for South-East Asia Bangkok

19. An accusation does not establish guilt. Article III, Section 14 protects the presumption of innocence. The LawPhil Project

20. Dialogue allows both groups to explain their needs and seek an agreement. Intimidation and exclusion increase the risk of conflict.

Analytical Ability

21. A blueprint guides the construction of a building; an outline guides the development of an essay.

22. A thermometer measures temperature, while a barometer measures atmospheric pressure.

23. The contractors identified as authorized personnel belong to the group required to have identification cards.

24. Archived files belong to the indexed group, and that entire group is excluded from pending review.

25. A signature is necessary for approval. Its absence rules out approval under the stated condition.

26. Forwarding is restricted to complete applications, so a forwarded application must be complete. Completeness does not prove selection.

27. The expected queue reduction depends on some in-person appointment requests moving online. It does not require everyone to own a computer.

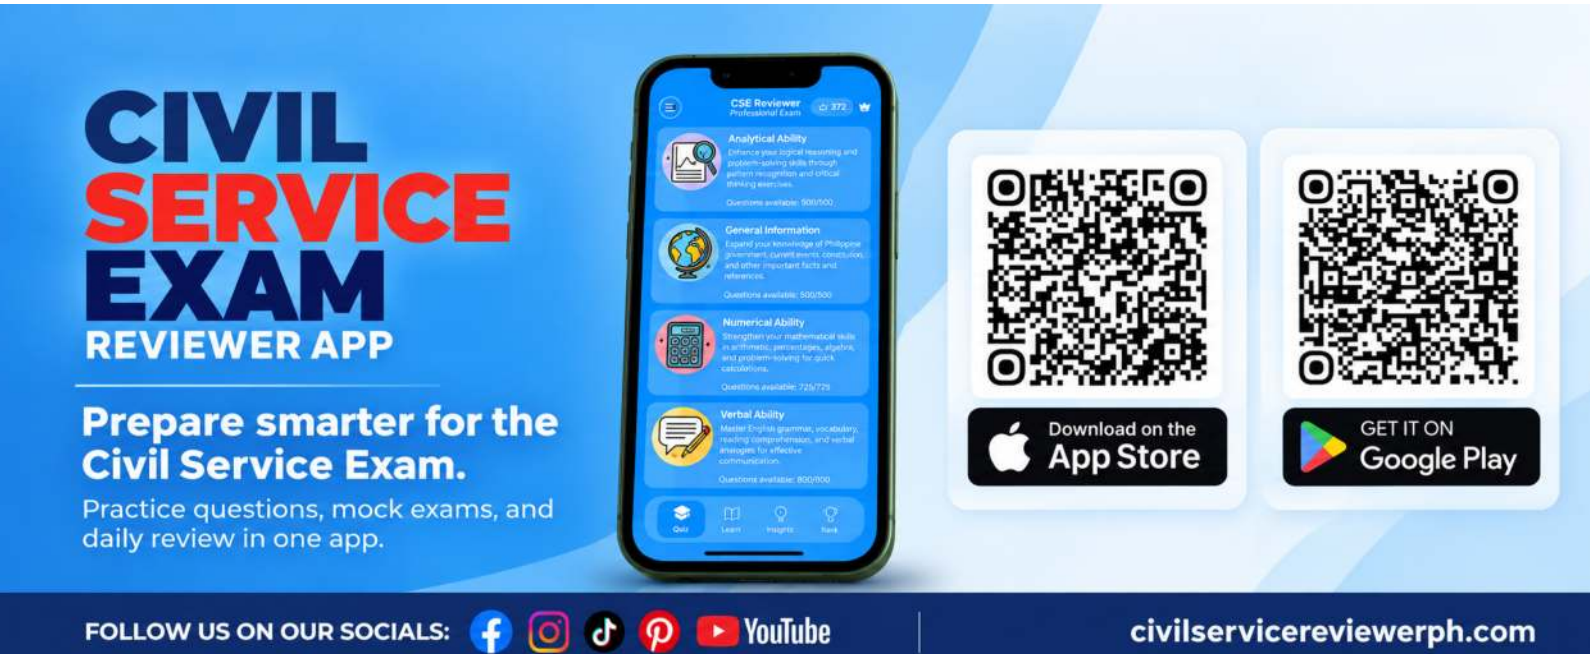

28. Additional experienced staff provide an alternative explanation for the improvement, weakening the claim that software caused it.

29. A comparable untrained group helps distinguish the training's effect from other changes affecting everyone.

30. P precedes Q, Q precedes R, S immediately precedes T, and T precedes R. The other orders violate at least one rule.

31. The only valid schedule is E–A–B–C–D from Monday to Friday. Therefore, B occurs on Wednesday.

32. Selecting A requires B. With A and C already selected, B fills the remaining position.

33. M scored higher than N, so N cannot be highest. L's position relative to N is not needed to establish this.

34. Move each letter two positions forward: F → H, I → K, L → N, and E → G.

35. Ten employees from one department do not establish the preferences of every employee across the agency.

36. Completion rates are A: 120/150 = 80%, B: 150/200 = 75%, and C: 90/100 = 90%. C has the highest rate.

37. Total completed requests are 360; total received requests are 450: (360 ÷ 450) × 100 = 80%

38. The increase is 300 transactions. Divide by the original 1,200: (300 ÷ 1,200) × 100 = 25%

39. Approval is necessary for receiving a permit. The statement does not say every approved application receives one.

40. At least one must attend. Since Rosa will not attend, Sam must.

Numerical Ability

41. Perform division and multiplication before addition: 48 ÷ 6 + 3 × 7 = 8 + 21 = 29

42. Convert both quantities to twentieths: 3/4 + 3/5 = 15/20 + 8/20 = 23/20

43. Multiply by 115% of the original budget: 2,400 (1.15) = ₱2,760

44. Apply the discount first, then the tax: 2,500 (0.80) (1.12)= ₱2,240

45. The larger share is seven of eleven total parts: 990 × (7/11) = ₱630

46. Let the ages be $3x$ and $5x$:

$\frac{3x+8}{5x+8} = \frac{5}{7}$

$21x + 56 = 25x + 40 \Rightarrow x = 4$

The younger sibling is (3(4)= 12

47. Add their daily work rates:

$\frac{1}{12} + \frac{1}{18} = \frac{5}{36}$

Time = 36/5 = 7.2 days

48. Subtract the draining rate from the filling rate:

$\frac{1}{6} - \frac{1}{9} = \frac{1}{18}$

The tank fills in 18 hours

49. The required total is $5(82) = 410$. The four known scores total 330:

410 - 330= 80

50. Weight each average by its group size: 20 (75) + 30 (85) / 50 = 4,050 / 50 = 81

51. Use $I = Prt$: 18,000 (0.05) (3) = ₱2,700

52. Selling price equals 115% of cost: Cost = 1,380 / 1.15 = ₱1,200

53. Each term is twice the preceding term plus one: 79 (2) + 1 = 159

54. Differences are 5, 7, 9, and 11. The next difference is 13:

35 + 13 = 48

55. For equal distances, average speed is: 2 (60) (40) / 60 + 40 = 48 km/h

56. Let the dimensions be $3x$ and $2x$:

$2(3x + 2x) = 100 \Rightarrow x = 10$
Area = 30 (20) = 600 square meters

57. Total work is $8(15) = 120$ worker-days. Five days complete 40 worker-days, leaving 80:

80 ÷ 10 = 8 more days

58. Apply the two changes successively:

$1.20(0.80) = 0.96$
The final salary is 96% of the original, or 4% lower.

59. After one red ball is drawn, four red balls remain among nine balls: 5/10 × 4/9 = 2/9

60. Let a be the adult-ticket count:

80a + 50(18 − a) = 1,170
80a + 900 − 50a = 1,170
30a = 270

a = 270 ÷ 30
a = 9

Verbal Ability

61. Mitigate means to lessen the severity or impact of something.

62. An opaque material blocks visibility through it; a transparent material allows visibility.

63. Pragmatic describes an approach focused on workable, practical results.

64. An equivocal statement is ambiguous rather than definite or clear.

65. Cut corners means omitting necessary steps to save time, effort, or expense.

66. With neither…nor, the verb agrees with the nearer subject. Assistants is plural.

67. Testing was completed before another past event, so the past perfect is appropriate.

68. After a recommendation expressed in a that clause, the mandative subjunctive uses the base form.

69. The preposition between takes the object pronoun me.

70. The introductory phrase must modify the person who performed the review. The auditor is correctly identified as that person.

71. All three duties use matching -ing forms, creating parallel structure.

72. The comparison must be between two budgets. That of the branch office supplies the second budget.

73. The passage emphasizes naming, descriptive information, access controls, and training as necessary additions to scanning.

74. The passage explicitly states that scanning alone does not guarantee easy retrieval.

75. The passage's central concern is evaluating both speed and accuracy.

76. Faster processing accompanied by more overlooked errors does not establish better overall performance.

77. Testing comes first, followed by identifying and correcting problems, expansion, and monitoring.

78. A semicolon joins the independent clauses, and a comma follows the transitional word however.

79. In accustomed to, to is a preposition and takes an -ing complement.

80. Despite can introduce the noun phrase the heavy rain. Although and even though require a clause, such as the rain was heavy.
